November 2, 2017

With a completely new look after a $15.0 million renovation, a 292-room Toronto airport hotel has been revitalized and renewed to become the DoubleTree by Hilton Toronto Airport. The DoubleTree by Hilton Toronto Airport was previously the Travelodge Toronto Airport, and is owned and operated by Manga Hotels. Manga also opened the 204-room DoubleTree by Hilton Halifax Dartmouth two months prior. The DoubleTree by Hilton Toronto Airport addition marks the 3rd DoubleTree property to be added to Manga's portfolio.

"The DoubleTree by Hilton Toronto Airport will showcase excellent lodging and hospitality in the Toronto airport market, offering a beautiful new design along with the new Turtle Jack's restaurant and Starbucks®," said Sukhdev Toor, CEO, Manga Hotels.

"Business and leisure guests will be able to enjoy being minutes away from the Toronto airport as well as the UP Express train which allows easy access to downtown Toronto," said Warren Bowles, Corporate Director of Operations at Manga Hotels.

This 17 story hotel located adjacent to the Toronto Pearson International Airport provides a welcome stay for the almost 44 million travelers who pass through and visit the increasingly popular Toronto each year. The DoubleTree by Hilton Toronto Airport features guestrooms that boast sprawling Airport views that are especially perfect for aviation enthusiasts. All rooms have 50-inch LCD TVs and free wi-fi access with a modern and contemporary design. The hotel is located near the popular Carlingview and Dixon Road area neighbouring a variety of entertainment, dining and shopping attractions. Business travellers are only minutes from the Congress Centre and International Centre.

The hotel features the newly added premium-casual dining experience Turtle Jack's Grill & Bar offering daily room service. Grab-and-go snacks and drinks are available in the 24-hour market, and there is a full service Starbucks® on-site, for those early mornings. The hotel is ideal for meetings as it offers 7,000 square feet of flexible event space accommodating up to 180 guests. A heated indoor pool and 24-hour state-of-the-art fitness center ensures guests can stay active during their stay.
